

Family Name:

Family ID:

EIPP PERINATAL EDUCATION CHECKLIST*Ask the parents “how do you learn best?” Check all that apply:

Verbal instructions and talking about it	Through computers
Reading about it	Visually, through videos and pictures
By doing, touching, and feeling	Other?

Enter the visit number when the topic was discussed in the box that corresponds with the women’s learning level:

EDUCATION TOPICS	NEW IDEA	NEEDS REVIEW	IS LEARNING INFO WELL, REVIEW AGAIN	KNOWS IT WELL ENOUGH TO TEACH SOMEONE ELSE
1. Access and Utilization of Care
How to access care
How to talk to provider
When to go to the doctor
2. Women’s Health
Family Planning
Reproductive Health (inc. basic anatomy)
Sexual Health (inc. STI/HIV risk reduction)
Other Health Concerns (cv; diabetes, cancer)
3. Oral Health
4. Nutrition
Healthy Diet and Healthy Weight
Food Contaminants
Infant Feeding and Nutrition
5. Breastfeeding
Anticipatory education
Breastfeeding support
6. Physical Activity
7. Cognitive and Perceptual
8. Environmental Health and Safety
Major childhood injuries
Home Safety
Lead poisoning prevention and asthma man.
Car Safety
9. Alcohol, Tobacco and Other Drugs
Tobacco, alcohol and other drugs during pregnancy
Smoking cessation information
10. Violence
Healthy and unhealthy relationships
11. Emotional Health
Postpartum Depression
Maternal Life Course and Development
12. Healthy Parenting
Appropriate expectations
Infant Care
Attachment and Bonding
13. Developmental Assessment
Normal newborn growth and development
14. Physical Assessment/Health
Preparation for Childbirth
Fetal growth and development
Prenatal care schedule
Routine newborn screenings
15. Other:				